REDMEN TO STAGE BIG HOME TALENT SHOW IN OCTOBER

Contract Is Signed By Local Lodge With Producing Company, for Presentation of Big Home Talent Musical Comedy.

At the regular meeting of Wyandotte Tribe of Red Men held Tuesday evening, that order signed a contract with one of the biggest home talent producing companies in the land for the presentation here on October 18th of a big musical comedy show entitled "Microbes of Love."

The lodge has appointed a committee consisting of Messrs. James Frost, Lee Dresel and William Martin to make all necessary arrangements for the producing of the play and work will be started at once to lay plans for one of the biggest and best shows ever attempted by the Red Men. This order has given many high class home talent shows and when they get out to outdo anything they have done in the past, they have quite a big job on their hands.

An expert director will be in Maysville within a few weeks and start the rehearsals of the various parts. The committee hopes to be enabled to get the best local talent interested and nothing will be spared to make the show a great one in every respect.

The show being a musical comedy means that there will be a very large cast of characters and more than one hundred will probably be in the entire cast.

Score of 84 for 18 Holes Wins For Men—Mrs. George Ballou Wins for the Women by Score of 57 for 9 Holes.

The opening of the Edgely Country Club of Tuesday was all that was expected and in many ways one of the most brilliant affairs in the history of Mason county. Every feature of the well balanced program was greatly enjoyed by the many in attendance.

Besides the brilliant dance and reception, the most interesting event was the golf tournament to determine the champions of the local course. The honors go to Mrs. George Ballou for the women and Mr. Ewing Kirk for the men. The men put 18 holes while the women took half that number. The entries and their scores follow:

BERLIN WILL SIGN PEACE PACT THIS AFTERNOON

Cabinet Gives Final Decision and U. S. Commissioner Will Approve Document Bringing Actual Peace.

Berlin, August 24.—The peace treaty between the United States and Germany will be signed today.

The Cabinet gave the document final consideration at a special session early Tuesday evening, which was attended by President Friedrich Ebert. The document will be signed by E. L. Loring Dresel, United States Commissioner, and Dr. Friedrich Rosen, the German Foreign Minister, who has been empowered by Herr Ebert, according to the German Constitution, to affix his signature in behalf of the German Republic. Mr. Dresel has received full credentials from the Washington Government for signing.

Beyond the statement that the treaty formally provides for restoration of friendly and an immediate resumption of diplomatic and consular intercourse between the United States and Germany, no information was obtainable regarding contents of the instrument.

It was intimated, however, that there are no provisions included in it for the precise treatment of financial, commercial and economic issues, which still are in abeyance. It is said that these will be made the subject of future negotiations.

Signing of the treaty will follow rejection by the United States Senate of the Treaty of Versailles and passage of the Knox-Porter peace resolution by Congress.

The resolution was drawn in the Senate by Senator Philander C. Knox, Pennsylvania, and in the House by Stephen C. Porter, Pennsylvania. Actual warfare ended November 11, 1918.

LARGE CROWD AT FAIR FOR THE FIRST DAY

Throngs Visit the Germantown Fair Grounds Today—Thursday To Be a Big Day and Many Expected.

Although the first day of every fair is looked upon as a sort of get-together and get-ready day, it was not the case at Germantown Wednesday. For several days preparations have been under way and things started off in real earnest Wednesday morning with a very large crowd on the grounds and much interest shown in the exhibition rings.

Thursday will be a great big day. The list of premiums shows that there will be several hundred dollars given away and it is expected that the grounds will be thronged all day long. The first experience with a night fair Thursday night will be watched with much interest by the management and the public in general. If the experiment proves a success, it will be continued from year to year as one of the features of the big fair.

There are all sorts of amusements on the grounds and the splendid concerts by our Boys' Band is one of the big features.

MORRISON CAUGHT WHILE DRUNK AT A DANCE IN ROWAN

Deputy Sheriff Jackson Slips Up On Prisoner, Who Says He Would Not Be Arrested But For Booze.

The Fleming Gazette tells the following story of the capture of Arthur Morrison:

Arthur Morrison, wanted to answer the charge of murder for the killing of Wm. Collins and to fifteen warrants charging him with violating the liquor laws, was arrested by Deputy Sheriff H. L. Jackson and lodged in jail here Thursday night about 1 o'clock. For a long time Morrison, reputed to be all round bad man, had been at large though several attempts had been made to get him, and his arrest will be viewed with satisfaction by the law abiding element of the county.

Thursday the officer learned that there was to be a dance at a house in the edge of Rowan county and suspecting that Morrison would be there quietly secured an auto and with a driver went to Muses Mills. From there he went to the house in Rowan in a buggy by himself and waited until the dance was over, which was after 11 o'clock when several drunks were in evidence, Morrison among them. While Morrison was lying on a bed and his brother was standing in the door, Mr. Jackson ran in and compelled the brother to stand aside while he grabbed Arthur and placed the handcuffs on him. Morrison had on his pistol holster, but the weapon was not in it when he was captured.

In jail Friday morning Morrison attributed his fate to being drunk and said the first he knew of being under arrest was when he awakened and found himself riding in an auto toward town. He thinks he would yet be eluding the officers if some one had not tipped him off, he says, to the officers. Anyhow, Officer Jackson did a good job in making the arrest.

Morrison was brought to Muses in the buggy and there was placed in the machine and brought here. He made no resistance further than to make threats against Mr. Jackson, to which the officer paid no attention.

A reward of $500 was outstanding for the arrest and conviction of Morrison.

Mrs. J. E. Browning left Wednesday morning for Concord to visit her sister-in-law, Mrs. Nan Ross, after a visit with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. G. C. Browning.

GIGANTIC SCHEME OF FRAUD IS UNCOVERED BY U. S.

Federal Agents Uncover Scheme in Which Millions of Dollars in Worthless Paper Is Floated.

Chicago, August 24. — Millions of dollars of worthless notes, stolen bonds, fraudulent deeds of trust and forged certificates of deposit have been flung on the markets of the country, Federal agents declared today after investigating operations of a band alleged to have been headed by Charles W. French and John B. Worthington.

Banks, bond houses, investment security brokers and wealthy business men from coast to coast were declared to have been the victims or dupes of one of the most gigantic swindles ever unearthed by Federal agents.

Six million dollars' worth of stolen bonds, nearly $2,000,000 in worthless notes and hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of trust deeds and forged certificates of deposit have been traced by department of Justice agents, it was declared.

The revelations resulted from a confession accredited to Alva W. Harshman, who was declared to have been a private secretary to French and who surrendered today. He was alleged to have told of a deal negotiated by French for the purchase of a bank in the Middle West that involved the exchange of $800,000.

A Washington man, according to Harshman, was to obtain certified checks for $500,000 there. These checks, he said, were to be presented to the bank owners and, when the bank gained control of the establishment, they were to cash all certificates of deposit the bank owned.

The money, he said, then would be forwarded to the Washington man, who would deposit it before the certified checks on the original transaction were cleared and returned. Many other similar deals were also described.

The Grand Finale

Have you ever attended a Grand Opera? Haven't you noticed in the last act of the "GRAND FINALE" how wonderful the music suddenly sounds. The violins, the cornets, the trombones, the flutes, the clarinets, and drums, all seem to burst into one harmonious note in their very last effort to emphasize the score of the opera. And the singers: the tenors, the sopranos, the altos, the barytones, and the bass, each one straining every muscle to make the closing notes, the sweetest and most melodious, as the curtain descends. What a lasting impression is made on the minds of the audience as they leave for their homes!

VIGILANT GERMANY.

It is reported that Germany is taking advantage of the depression in shipping by buying cheap ships wherever they can be obtained. That indicates something of the competition the United States must meet. Our ships, built at exorbitant war-time costs, must compete with German ships bought at less than normal prices.

Now that Lord Bryce has publicly admitted that the Paris peace proceedings were a calamitous hodge from start to finish and that the treaty was the most reactionary document concocted since the Peace of Vienna the organs and politicians who have been advertising the Versailles treaty as the last word in human progress are beginning to feel that they have been stabbed in the house of their friends.

In Earlier Days

In former times, when the town butcher or farmer himself dressed and cured the meat for the community, he could not always tell how it would turn out.

His methods were crude; partly traditional, partly guesswork. His tests were few and inconclusive.

Meat packing of today, as carried on by Swift & Company, has changed all that. It is scientific. Nothing is left to chance; nothing taken for granted.

The most painstaking care and attention are given to every step. Processes are worked out on a large scale with minute exactness. Methods are continually revised and improved. Cleanliness is insisted upon. Drastic, incessant inspections are the order of the day.

Swift products are uniform, graded according to quality.

Take bacon, for instance.

Swift & Company set out years ago to make a delicious, savory bacon which should be uniformly excellent.

The result is Swift's Premium Bacon, always the same, always famously good. Today this bacon, wrapped, sealed and branded, has circled the world.

Swift & Company's system of distribution carries it to places which the "town butcher" or the farmer could not reach.

MANY SOILS NEED

PHOSPHATE SUPPLY.

The majority of Kentucky soils outside of the blue grass section as much in need of phosphate fertilizers, according to soil specialists who have made a study of the subject. The heavy clay soils of the state in particular are in a condition to respond to phosphate treatments as are also many of the loam soils. Phosphates, with clover and manure, to furnish nitrogen and organic matter are the principal elements of successful soil building to be used in the state, the specialists say.

Poor farming, soil erosion and the sale of crops off the farm has resulted in many of the soils being depleted of their phosphorus, according to members of the soils and crops department of the College of Agriculture. Because of the source from which they were derived, many of the soils which are now in need of phosphorus have always contained a small amount of it.

250 BUSHELS AN ACRE

FROM GOOD SPUD SEED.

That the use of high-grade potato seed is a profitable practice and one which results in larger yields than those obtained from home-grown, bin-selected seed is shown by results which have been obtained by Western Kentucky farmers who cooperated with the extension division of the College of Agriculture in showing the advantages of good seed. Pedigreed Kentucky and northern-grown seed was used in the demonstration in comparison with home-grown, bin-selected tubers which represented the type usually left over from sales and sown for seed. The pedigreed and northern-grown seed yielded at the rate of 250 bushels an acre while the yield from the home-grown seed was only 30 bushels an acre. Farmers in that community are expected to import more seed in 1922 as a result of the demonstration.

HEALTH EXPOSITION IS TO BE HELD AT CINCINNATI

Great Exposition Will Be Held in Music Hall, Cincinnati, On October 15 to 22.

Bringing back memories of the great World's Fairs of the past, and linking their accomplishments with the wonderful progress made in the industrial and scientific world since those wonderful exhibitions, is the great Cincinnati Health Exposition, to be held in Music Hall, Cincinnati, Ohio, October 15 to 22.

One of the main features of this exposition, which is attracting the attention of the country's greatest health experts, is Rural Sanitation Day when Dr. C. L. Lumsden, United States Public Health Service, will be one of the principal speakers.

With the co-operation of Dr. C. A. Neal, District Board of Health Commissioner, a program of special interest to farmers and their families has been prepared and many attractions of vital importance to those who live in rural communities will be displayed.

Rural Sanitation Day will bring to Cincinnati a notable gathering from farming communities throughout the whole of Ohio Valley. Realizing the tremendous importance of the health of the farmer and his family, the exposition committee has arranged a program for Rural Sanitation Day, that will show in a comprehensive and simple manner, the way the farmer can best safeguard his own health and that of his family.

The lectures and exhibits will be on the simplest possible scale, and though they will not be couched in highly scientific terms will, nevertheless, be based on the results of years of investigation, by officials of the United States Public Health Service and other organizations.

A definite program for the safeguarding of the health of those who live where doctors and nurses are not available at a few minutes notice as in the cities, will be outlined, and special stress will be laid on the prevention and treatment of the diseases and ailments which frequently present a tremendous problem to those who live in the rural communities.

The exposition has received the endorsement of President Harding, Governor Harry L. Davis of Ohio and the Mayors and Health Commissioners of thousands of cities throughout the whole country.

The most prominent health experts in America have accepted invitations to lecture on various health matters during the exposition. The program will be varied by showing motion pictures depicting the simplest methods of safeguarding the public health and interesting pageants prepared by members of local health exhibitions.

The entire exposition will be one of motion and every afternoon and evening during the week of October 15-22 the great auditorium of Music Hall, capable of seating more than 3,600 persons will be the scene of a variety of demonstrations and lectures by national, state and local leaders in health activities.

The exposition seeks to teach the road to health.

New York Letter

New York.—The chorus girl cohorts have faded away from Broadway and from all Manhattan. Where have they gone? That's what the producers want to know. Early in the summer there were thousands of them. The Times Square district was so filled and covered and thronged with them that an ordinary person felt rather drab and middle aged just to venture within sight of it. But they've gone. It was a pretty hard summer for them and the musical comedy directors have reached the tragic conclusion that they've given up and gone home to the farm and the village where there's a place to sleep and food to eat and no "walking the weary." "I'm putting on four musical shows," said one the other day, "and I can't get girls to fill them. I think the girls got too close to the bread line this summer and when wires came from home that the fatted calf was waiting to be killed, they made for the railroad stations."

Over 30,000 tenants in this city have received notice from their landlords to vacate their apartments on October 1, according to the chief counsel for the mayor's committee on rent profiteering. Most landlords are having their demands on the ground that they want the apartment for their personal use or that the house has been sold. Under the present laws, that's the only way a landlord can rouse his rent—that or by proving that he isn't making a fair profit and naturally the "move on" order is simpler. The most popular chorus in the city just now among those lucky ones of us that can join in it is the line, "I'm glad my lease is signed."

The Beecher family has never been monotonous and has never stood still and watched the world go by. In this day as in that when Henry Ward Beecher and Harriet Beecher Stowe were stirring things up, the family is still active, volatile and interesting. Naturally then, one of them has gone into the movies. Margaret Beecher is a great-granddaughter of the celebrated preacher, but she is also a featured member of the cast of "Sunshine Harbor" which is just being put on the screen. Her previous motion picture work has been principally in boy roles.

The high light of our coming mayoralty campaign where the high lights are always pretty bright and sometimes shed by explosive fireworks will be the race for the office of Registrar between Miss Annie Matthews, a former suffrage leader, designated for the office by Tammany Hall, and Miss Helen Varick Boswell, long active in Republican politics, and feminine county leader. Both women are experienced in politics, both are strong party supporters and both are pretty good fighters. Added to all that is the fact that it's the first time women have opposed each other on any party ticket in this state.

—NY—

Long Island society seems to get more thrills out of a flite than the same circle anywhere else in the country.

when it isn't a spectacular automobile accident, it's a fashionable and sensational divorce, and when it's neither of those things—it's a tomato! A tomato sounds innocuous and hardly interesting; but when one lady is established social position, has another equally prominent lady hailed to court for having thrown a tomato at her and barely missing her neck, it takes on now interest. So, the automobiles thronged the courtyard when Miss Adele Campbell was pressing her charge against Mrs. Medeline de Comperte Roos, whose screen she saw closed immediately after the ripe, red tomato had grazed her arm. Mrs. Roos was indignant at the accusation. "Undoubtedly," she explained, "the tomato had just ripened and had fallen from the tree."

Quartermaster General Makes Denial of Charges Against the Graves Division.

With reference to the report from Newark, New Jersey, that the body of Private Silvino Buffano, recently brought home from France, was left unceremoniously on the doorstep of his father's home, the office of the Quartermaster General which has charge of the return of the soldier dead, gave out this statement:

"This body was escorted to the home of the father by a corporal and seven men.

"The father, mother, sister and a person who appeared to be an undertaker were present.

"It was not possible to take the remains upstairs to the apartment of the father on the second floor as the stairs were narrow and winding.

"At the request of the undertaker who was apparently acting under instructions from the father, the casket was taken out of the shipping case, the shipping case left on the front porch and the casket taken into the front hall.

"The Hoboken Office of the Quartermaster Corps is in receipt of a letter from the father this morning (August 24th) stating that he was thoroughly satisfied and very much pleased with the way the soldiers handled the matter. He does not know the source of the report."

Major General H. L. Rogers, Quartermaster General of the Army, added to this:

"In view of the great care and reverence with which the bodies of our soldier dead are treated by the Cemetery Division personnel, it is most regrettable that such an unjust statement should have been made. Relatives of the dead from overseas have written innumerable letters of thanks for the loving care which our soldiers give their fallen comrades as they return them home. The public should know that everything is done to make the last journey what the families would wish it to be."

MANY FARMERS INQUIRE ABOUT FARM EXPLOSIVE.

Requests are being received daily by the College of Agriculture for information concerning picric acid, the salvaged war explosive available for distribution to farmers at a cost below that of commercial explosives, according to reports from the college which is cooperating with the United States Department of Agriculture in distributing the material in Kentucky. The state has been allotted 168,000 pounds on the basis of her 3,222,000 acres of cut-over land.

In order that the material may be distributed in the state it will be necessary to obtain orders for at least one carload, according to an announcement made at the college. Cash with order is required to the extent of 10 cents a pound to cover cost of the acid and the expenses of freight and handling. Any farmer may order 100 pounds or multiples thereof up to 1,000 pounds, orders being received subject to return in case sufficient requests are not received to make up the carload.

The acid is expected to be of special help in furnishing a means for farmers to reclaim and clear land at a cost less than that necessary by the use of commercial dynamite. A six-ounce cartridge of the acid is equivalent to an eight-ounce one of commercial dynamite. Because of the insensitiveness of the material it requires a No. 8 cap for detonating whereas dynamites and farm powders are usually detonated with No. 6 caps. Information concerning the material may be obtained by writing the College of Agriculture, Lexington.

PAYETTE MEN TO CONDUCT ALFALFA DEMONSTRATIONS.

Five Fayette county farmers co-operating with the County Agent W. R. Gabbert and the extension division of the College of Agriculture will show the possibilities and advantages of growing alfalfa in that section by means of demonstrations which will be started before August 30. These who will cooperate in the work are W. Clay Shropshire, D. R. Kelley, W. E. Roser, W. F. Marshall and F. P. Drake. Each of the demonstrators will sow from two to six acres of the legume.

Good seed bed preparation, the use of limestone and inoculation are the three things to be given special attention in the demonstrations. From three to four tons of limestone will be used on each acre of alfalfa seeded while Mr. Kelley and Mr. Roser will use a carload. The soil on which the crop is to be seeded will be inoculated with soil from inoculated fields where alfalfa or sweet clover has been grown. From 300 to 500 pounds of soil will be used on each acre. This will be applied broadcast or by means of a lime spreader.

WOMEN WHO OVERWORK

"Man may work from sun to sun, but woman's work is never done." In order to keep the home neat and attractive, the children well dressed and tidy, women continually overdo and suffer in silence, drifting along from bad to worse, knowing full well that they need help to overcome the pains and aches which daily make life a burden. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a medicine with specific value which overcomes many of the worst forms of female complaints, as the letters constantly being published in this paper will prove.

Adolph Hallenberger, commander of Louisville post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, is the present complainant. An earlier petition resulted in an examination by two other physicians who reported Dr. Jillson of sound mind.

Dr. Jillson has been the subject of criticisms by former service men, former employees of the hospital, and persons living near Lakeland.

Philadelphia, August 23. — The Philadelphia Mint, which today has reached the greatest production in its history, is cutting down the interest-bearing debt of the United States $5,000,000 a month, according to officials of the institution.

Incidentally a new record has been set in the coinage of silver dollars, upon which the energies of the plant have been concentrated in order to replace the 250,000,000 coins of that denomination melted down during the war and sold to the English as bullion. The average production for the last month, it was said, has been 250,000 silver dollars a day.

ENDORSED AT HOME.
Such Proof as This Should Convince Any Maysville Citizen.

The public endorsement of a local citizen is the best proof that can be produced. None better, none stronger can be had. When a man comes forward and testifies to his fellow-citizens, addresses his friends and neighbors, you may be sure he is thoroughly convinced or he would not do so. Telling one's experience when it is for the public good is an act of kindness that should be appreciated. The following statement given by a resident of Maysville adds one more to the many cases of Home Endorsement which are being published about Doan's Kidney Pills. Read it.

D. S. Stout, 22 East Second street, Maysville, says: "Just after my recovery from pneumonia, my kidneys began to give me trouble. My back had a steady dull ache and it hurt me to breathe. My eyes would get puffy underneath. I knew my kidneys were in bad shape and something would have to be done to check the disorder so I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and began using them. It didn't take long to rid me of my trouble. I take pleasure in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills."
